Sir, 9 (1) The last clause (xvi) of Sec 345 of the Criminal Procedure Code is as follows.

"(1) no offence shall be Compounded Except as provided by this Section"

This provision has to be read along with the provisions of any Special law on the Subject in the Statute but as there is no Special provision in the Municipal Regulation of 1906, and as, under Schedule II of the Criminal Procedure Code "Offences against other laws" — that is, the laws the Penal Code — are not Compoundable, the direction of law is clear that offences Constituted by the Municipal Act can not be legally Compounded

(2) It has next to be Considered whether Sec 247 or 248 of the Criminal Procedure Code Can be resorted to to bring about the same results as a Compromise in a Criminal Offence

10 the without stopping to Consider whether it is desirable that a Statutory public body like a Municipal Council should be permitted by indirect methods to violate a clear direction of law, it may be noted that even if the Municipal Council should absent itself at the trial, the Court is not bound to ~~endorse~~ dismiss the case under Sec 247 at once.

11. As regards Sec 248, it is perhaps sufficient to state that the complaint can not be withdrawn unless the Magistrate is satisfied that there are sufficient grounds for permitting the complainant to withdraw it" Compounding of a case not legally compoundable may not be considered to be "sufficient grounds."

12 Of course, these considerations apply only to cases in which prosecution before a Magistrate has been commenced already

14 Section 247 C P C lays down that where a summons has been issued on complaint and the complainant is absent on the day fixed for hearing, the magistrate shall acquit the accused unless he thinks proper to adjourn the hearing to some other day - All that the magistrate can do is to adjourn the case and he cannot proceed with the trial. If he does not acquit the accused at once, he should acquit him in the end -

15 Then again, cases must be very rare indeed where a magistrate refuses permission to withdraw a complaint when the Municipal Council apply for such permission under sec 248 C P. C

16. No doubt, section 345 (7) C P C states that no offence shall be compounded except as provided by that section and in Schedule II, offences against other laws are described as "not compoundable". But that Code itself has permitted evasion in the manner indicated above and the evasion is not objected to.

17 What is being considered now is the legal aspect of the case.

Secy) 1.6.11 Hlle

18 If a power to compound certain classes of offences is desirable the best course is to provide in such a power in the law. In the absence of such a power, it would be improper on the part of the accused to obtain a withdrawal from the prosecution of an offence for the reason that the offender has paid some money. Such an act would be considered shady even in a private individual & cannot be tolerated in a public body. The same cannot be said of abstention from prosecution for other reasons such as the act being a first offence, the offende gives assurance of future good conduct or complies with the law etc.

19. The reasoning adopted by the Shimoga Municipal Council is very curious. If evasion of octroi is not looked upon as dishonourable why should the Municipality encourage that feeling by not taking the present remedy that lies ready to its hands. The fear of penal conviction is more deterrent than mere liability to compound by pay money if found out. This is of course from the point of view that a fine for such an offence is a stigma.

20 A priori I can see no harm in legally giving a municipal council power to compound offences against octroi & other laws, but the Council would be best consulted their own best interests by prosecuting a case now & then.

the empowering of the Municipal Council to compound offences under the Municipal Regulation

280 Submitted to the President of the Hole-Narsipur Muni-cipal Council and the General Assistant Commissioner, Channarayspatna Sub Division

This reference was brought to my notice only on 16-12-11 on which day a Municipal Council meeting was held The mem-bers present were not able to discuss or give any opinion since they had not read much of the Regulation They in a vague manner wanted a resolution to be passed to the effect that the Municipal Council should be empowered to accept composition for all offences committed against the Munici-pal Regulation In fact they had no idea of what they were asking After a great deal of discussion the members agreed to come prepared at the next meeting

The subject was again placed in the Municipal Council Meeting held on the 4th February 1912 The members as usual had not come prepared But any how they had to be read all the provisions of the Municipal Regulation relating to the -- offences and penalties After a protracted discussion the annexed resolution was arrived at

In my opinion this Municipality is yet in its infancy and the Councillors are not quite conversant with the Regu -lation nor or they likely to become for sometime to come No Bye-laws or rules under the Municipal Regulation have yet been framed So far as this Municipality is concerned no empowering to compound offences is at present called fo
But as a provisional measure, the power of compounding offences to the limited extent mentioned in the Resolution may be conferred on the Municipal Council and the necessar addition made to the Municipal Regulation

Sir,

Adverting to your letter No. 1021-8/Munl 172-10-8 dated 1st August 1911, Calling for the submission of the resolutions of the Munl Councils in the District, with my opinion on the subject of empowering the Presidents and Vice-Presidents to compound offences under the new Municipal Regulation, I have the honor to state that with the exception of the Anekal Municipal Council, the remaining councils are in favor of the proposal suggested by the Mysore and Shimoga Municipalities. The Anekal Municipal Council have resolved that premier municipal councils such as Mysore and Bangalore may work satisfactorily if powers are given to them to compound offences committed against the Municipal Regulation, and that as regards empowering the councils

Councils in small Towns to compound offences committed against the Municipal Regulations, it may not satisfactorily work

64

2 However, for the convenience of the public who may have without guilty intention violated the provisions of the Municipal Regulations and for the speedy disposal of cases of such violations, the Presidents and Vice Presidents of Municipal Councils may be empowered to compound trivial offences of smuggling of octroi dutiable articles where the duty does not exceed Rs 2/-, encroachment upon Municipal Lands, Construction of buildings etc, without licenses

3 Extracts from the resolutions of the several Municipal Councils and Minor Municipalities in the District are herewith submitted
